Department of Electrical Engineering is going to organize one day seminar on “Renewable Sources of Energy” to be held on September 15, 2017 at SVIST.

About the Seminar

The seminar will cover the following areas:

- Need of Renewable Energy Sources
- Advancements in Renewable Energy Source Technologies
- Technologies and Aspects of Energy Generation
- Problems and their possible Solutions in Harnessing of Green Energy
- Various Methods and related issues for Energy Conversion

Electrical energy is obtained, conventionally, by conversion from fossil fuels (coal, oil, natural gas), nuclear and hydro sources. With increase in per capita consumption and exponentially rising population, the earth's non-replenishable fuels are limited and will not last for a long time. Therefore, it is necessary today to ensure adequate energy supply for humanity at low cost. The seminar will provide a forum for scientific discussion, networking, research collaborations, and interdisciplinary education, on advances in renewable energy sources, to the academic community.
